

LOCAL MATTERS.

Gov. A. P. K. Safford has appointed Anderson probate judge for Pima county Samuel Todd, for Mohave.

Goldberg's mattresses look so comfortable that those who come to bargain for them fall after a few minutes, and before the price has been decided upon.

During the past two weeks several have arrived; among them we observed a man with merchandise for the firms of Jacobs & Co., and E. N. Fish & Co.

We refrain from making disclosures concerning the celebration on Monday evening—a certain individual, who does not wish to compromise, having, it is said, been a prominent part.

The Old German Bakery of Lauenstein & Co. is, decidedly, the best arranged bakery established in Tucson. The flour used is the best quality and this together with skillful rendering the bread particularly excellent.

The Denver Herald comes to us laden with glowing hopes of the coming greatness of Colorado, but thinks as we do, that the War Department is determined to let Arizona fight her own battles with the savages, or throw the sponge, if she think it better.

The Convent building is now almost ready for occupancy, and from its size and style of finish would be an embellishment to any city, Los Angeles. Too much credit cannot be awarded the ladies who have accomplished a work so grand in the face of many obstacles.

Our friend, Captain Thayer, is in ecstasies over a couple of little feathered curiosities—being less than two chickens hatched, partly in Sonora, partly during the intermediate passage and partly in Tucson. The eggs were brought here to market, and for about six days the atmospheric heat, alone, sustained the embryos enabling them, at length, to demolish the walls of their narrow prisons.

Mr. M. D. Duffield, the accomplished gentleman and special Postal Agent for Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado, arrived from Santa Fe on Saturday the 10th inst., and left to his family, in California, on 13th. The agent is highly pleased at the energy exhibited by the mail contractors in Arizona, laboring under so many disadvantages.

Mr. I. Goldberg arrived from the East on Saturday after an absence of four weeks. The harvest, he says, has been exceedingly rich, and prospects of the settlers never looked brighter. Mr. J. Anderson arrived from the Pass on Saturday. Great progress is being made in preparing the mine; and if the natural capacity (?) of the Apache, in mining matters, would not lead him to interfere in this matter we may expect to hear of the mill being in operation at an early day.

As an instance of the value of advertising, we would call the attention of our readers in Arizona, to the great success, in business, of the firm of Hooper, Whiting & Co. The advertisement of this firm may be seen in every newspaper located where it has business connections; and the result is, that it is enabled to import merchandise direct from the East, and to sell for cash, at Arizona City, at San Francisco prices. This fact should be a wholesome lesson to you feeble-minded individuals who pocket the almighty dollar which, if paid for advertising, would bring you a hundred-fold return.

Another Indian Depredation:—The adventure on Tuesday last, near Sulphur Springs, adds another incident to the record of successful attacks made by the Indians in Arizona.

A wagon sent by Mr. Stone, to convey a party of miners, with mining tools, provisions etc., to his mine at Apache Pass, was attacked by about 40 Indians between Sulphur Springs and San Pedro Crossing. The Indians were discovered at a distance, before sun-set and remained in view until dusk when the whole band rushed upon the wagon. The miners, three in number, sought safety in flight, under cover of gathering darkness. Two of the party reached the Pass in safety, but the third died of fatigue and thirst after having traveled some 40 miles. The Indians, after doing all they could toward destroying the wagon, carried off the mules, provisions and mining tools. The loss sustained by the company amounts to over $1,000.

Our Florence correspondent writes under date of June 12:

"The people of Florence are in a state of excitement at present. Only one week ago Gen. Alexander was here for the purpose of suppressing disturbances; having done this satisfactorily he returned to his post but had hardly time to bestow a thought upon other matters when he was again called upon to protect H. L. Bell from being mobbed by Mexicans, (Bell) having killed a Mexican named Sacramento Gonzales. On the 9th inst., Gonzales got into a difficulty with Bell regarding water. The particulars of the affair are not known, but it resulted in the murder of Gonzales. Justice Morehead having investigated the affair discovered that Gonzales was unarmed when shot. Gen. Alexander arrived to-day and is holding an examination at present. The saloons are all closed and the Mexicans are still in a state of great excitement. Gonzales leaves a wife and two children here, besides two sisters at Tucson, to grieve over their great bereavement."

We observed that a rather strange construction is put upon the right of preemption by certain parties claiming lands in this valley. It is wrong to suppose that any persons can hold more than 160 acres on preemptive title; and even this quantity of land can be secured only by improvements, and retained only by residence or continued improvements. Notwithstanding this, there are parties here who have staked out from 500 to 1000 acres, and believe that by having done so they have secured a title, and again there are parties who wish to locate; but not knowing the rights or privileges awarded by law in such cases are afraid of being ejected should they settle upon lands claimed as above.

Our attention has been called to the following paragraph, from what paper, we know not, but handed to us by a gentleman of this city who is fully alive to the importance of the decision: "The Secretary of the Interior has decided that an actual change of residence or abandonment of lands, entered under the the homestead act, for more than six months at any one time, worked a forfeiture thereof to the Government."

Tucson, A. T., June 1st, 1869
M. B. Platt of Tucson, is hereby appointed our agent for the transaction of all business connected directly or indirectly with transportation of Government stores from Tucson Depot to all posts dependant upon it for supplies.
